"We would like to congratulate John Thompson & Partners on their outstanding achievement. An engaged workforce is essential as organisations move out of the recession and into a more stable economic situation. No doubt many organisations have tackled redundancies and rapid change this year. But organisations like John Thompson & Partners that have kept on engaging their staff and making sure they are involved in the business will be in a good position for the future and should be congratulated for their efforts"
Jonathan Austin - Founder and CEO of Best Companies.

As the name behind The Sunday Times 100 Best Companies to Work For lists, Best Companies conducts the largest employee engagement survey in the world, having received nearly one million survey responses from over 3000 different organisations.
