

SENIOR URBAN DESIGNER

London Studio

JTP is an award winning, international placemaking practice of architects and masterplanners.

From our studios in London and Edinburgh we undertake placemaking projects at every scale, from cities and towns, to neighbourhoods, streets and the design of individual buildings.

Our London Studio is seeking a creative and ambitious Senior Urban Designer to lead on a number of exciting and high profile visioning and masterplanning projects for urban extensions, large scale new neighbourhoods and garden villages within the UK.

With a passion for collaboration and the creation of sustainable and biodiverse places, the ideal candidate will have significant experience of working on projects of this nature, and of taking them through stages of vision development and masterplanning to the preparation of design coding, regulatory plans, and detailed housing layouts.

The successful candidate will be a highly confident, proactive and talented urban designer with a proven record of managing project teams and building successful relationships with clients, consultants and local communities.

The ideal candidate will have excellent written, verbal and graphic communication and be proficient in the use of Adobe Creative Suite, SketchUp, CAD and hand-drawing.

A post graduate qualification in urban design is essential for this role and a background in architecture advantageous.

JTP is passionate about placemaking and people. Our unique approach and investment in people has received high praise, recognised with over 200 design and people-related awards including being named BD's Best Architectural Employer of the Year 2019, AJ100 Employer of the Year 2019 and a Sunday Times 100 Best Mid-Sized Company to Work for 2021.
